Filled With Brief Mention of Many Minor
Events of Yesterday.

THE REPUBLICAN JOB OFFICE is now ready in the new quarters specially prepared for it, at THE REPUBLICAN office, corner of Tenth and D streets, to fulfill all orders on the shortest notice for every class of legal, mercantile, and amusement printing—from the mammoth poster to the daintiest card—all executed in the best manner and in unique and elegant design. No job office in the city is better equipped than that of THE REPUB-LICAN, and the best talent obtainable has been employed. The managers of THE RE-PUBLICAN now solicit from the many patrons of the paper their orders for this class of work, confident that perfect satisfaction will be given, and upon lower terms than elsewhere obtainable. Attention is called to the advertisement elsewhere.

A large force of laborers were at work yesterday repairing the tracks of the Baltimore and Potomac railway at the intersection of Seventh street and Virginia Avenue.

John H. Cassell, of this city, has been awarded the contract for furnishing material and constructing a new coping for the fountain north of the white house for $1,000.

Last evening about 7 o'clock thieves entered the vestibule of the residence of A. F.
Fox, No. 16 Grant place, and unscrewed and carried off the heavy bronze door knobs.

Susan Clark and Alice Adams, both colored, had a row in Bates's alley, in which the Adams woman was fearfully cut about the face and arms. She was taken to the Fredmen's hospital in the police ambulance.

The new Universalist church at the corner of Thirteenth and L streets northwest will be ready for occupation about May 1. The choir will be composed of Mrs. Knapp, soprano; Mrs. True, contralto; Mr. Knapp, tenor, and Mr. Keiser, bass, with Mr. William Waldeck as organist. The dedication services will not take place until fall.

The Rev. Dr. Townsend, rector of the church of the Incarnation, delivered the first of a series of Wednesday evening lectures on the distinctive features of the church after choir evening prayer at 6:30 last evening.
The lectures will be in simple conversational style and will, we are sure, prove interesting to all desirous of knowing the points of difference between the Episcopal church and other religious bodies.

Hibernian Benevolent society, No. 3, has elected the following officers: James Plant, president; John Spollen, first vice president; Thomas Enright, second vice president; James H. Kelly, secretary; James Butler, treasurer; and Cornelius Dowling, marshal.

The society also elected James H. Kelly delegate to the Irish American national convention, to be held in Horticultural hall, in the city of Philadelphia, April 26 next.

Capt. Cross's Funeral.

The funeral of the late Capt. James Cross took place yesterday morning from his late residence, No. 632 North Carolina Avenue southeast, and was attended by a delegation of Lafayette Lodge of Masons and John A.
Rawlings Post, No. 1, Grand Army of the Republic. Brief religious services were conducted by Rev. Dr. S. D. Domes, of St. Paul's Lutheran church, and the remains were taken to the Baltimore and Potomac depot, and placed on the 9:30 train to be taken to Lancaster, Pa., where the interment will take place. The pall bearers were J. P. Pearson, R. J. Blakelock, H. T. Hutton, James Faby, Charles E. Joyce, and H. H. Martin. F. M.
W. G. Powers, of Lafayette lodge, went with the family to Lancaster.

Police Court Notes.

The case against Special Policeman Ben Klopper, charged with shooting Romero Ellis, was continued for one week, the injured man not being able to appear.

Adeline Davis charged A. F. Davis with bigamy, alleging that he married her in this city in 1868, and that without procuring a divorce he married Rosa Ann Reddick in 1879. He was committed in default of $1,000 bail until to-day.

Henry Kropp, who only a week ago was released from a six months' term in jail for threatening the life of his wife, was again charged by her with the same offense, but was released after a lecture on his personal bonds to keep the peace.

Advice to Consumptives.

ON the appearance of the first symptoms—as general debility, loss of appetite, pallor, chilly sensations, followed by night sweats and cough—prompt measures for relief should be taken. Consumption is a serious disease of the lungs; therefore use the great anti-scrofula, or blood purifier and strength restorer—Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery." Superior to cod liver oil as a nutritive and unsurpassed as a pectoral. For weak lungs, spitting of blood, and kindred affections, it has no equal. Sold by druggists the world over. For Dr. Pierce's pamphlet on consumption send two stamps to World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y.

The Royal Bell Ringers Next Week.

The sale of tickets for these delightful entertainments begins at Metzger's this evening. One of the greatest attractions on the avenue to-day was the frame of photographs of Walter Pelham, the famous English male and humorist, who appears with them for the first time in this city.

Postal Cards and Stamps.

The postoffice department yesterday received requisitions from postmasters for 25, 000,000 stamps, 1,000,000 envelopes, 2,100,000 postal cards, the aggregate value of which is $700,000. This demand exceeds the aggregate of any ever before received in one day.
